

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: Supervising Litigation Attorney
DEPT/PROGRAM: Litigation
REPORTS TO: Director of Litigation and Policy

JOB PURPOSE

The Supervising Litigation Attorney plays a key role in the implementation of Tenant Right to Counsel in San Francisco. Working with a team of attorneys, interns, paralegals, and volunteers, the Supervising Litigation Attorney will represent tenants fighting eviction lawsuits. Because we strive to be barrier-free and client-centered, the position requires individuals who truly enjoy working with people, have the skills and capacity to respond in an empathetic and respectful way to clients who are often in crisis, and can work effectively in a collegial and fast paced environment.

The Supervising Litigation Attorney is responsible for overseeing and providing day-to-day management and flow of work of the EDC's Litigation staff. The Supervising Litigation Attorney may also work in collaboration with other EDC staff as part of his/her/their legal representation.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Supervision Duties (40%)

- Supervise program staff (consisting of attorneys, paralegals and law clerks) in all aspects of their provision of legal representation to tenants facing eviction to ensure compliance with program deliverables and EDC's mission.
- Develop and implement evaluation processes to assess needs and challenges of litigation staff and regularly meet with them to manage their development.
- In collaboration with the Director of Litigation and Policy, recruit and hire program staff.
- Train, guide, supervise and support litigation staff as needed in the litigation process (e.g. ex parte applications, noticed motion drafting and hearings, trial prep including jury instructions, trial briefs, best case management practices and other litigation processes).
- Be prepared to "step in" as lead counsel or second chair when cases progress to trial.
- Provide support to the Director of Litigation and Policy on litigation program related issues.

Legal Services Duties (50%)

- Manage independent caseload providing full scope representation to tenants in eviction matters including:
 - Preparing responsive pleadings, discovery, and motions;

- Advocating for tenants and negotiating on their behalf with landlords and landlords' attorneys in unlawful detainer (eviction) actions;
- Representing tenants at court hearings, settlement conferences, and trial.

Administrative Duties (10%)

- Attend weekly program meetings, monthly agency staff meetings, and relevant supervision meetings.
- Enter all data on time and correctly to support program evaluation and outcomes tracking.
- Represent EDC at community meetings/events as required.
- Perform other duties as assigned in furtherance of EDC's mission.

QUALIFICATIONS

First and foremost, the applicant must profoundly share EDC's mission and vision of social justice and be able to manage stressful situations with empathy and calm. Below are additional qualifications.

- In good standing with the California Bar.
- At least five years litigation experience (preferably in the unlawful detainer context).
- Possess ability to make quick decisions and exercise good judgment.
- Possess ability to work on several projects simultaneously and handle a high volume of activity and be able to work efficiently and effectively under pressure.
- Ability to work collaboratively, but with the capacity to work independently.

REQUIRED SKILLS

- Proficient to intermediate skills with Microsoft Office and Google Suite and other common computer programs. Database management a plus (Salesforce).
- Excellent customer service skills (professional demeanor, sound judgment, communication, de-escalation, client-management, etc.) and proven ability to handle confidential information with discretion.
- Have excellent written and oral communication skills. Facilitation in Cantonese, Mandarin, Spanish, Tagalog, Russian or other second language a plus.

CLASSIFICATION

This is an exempt, full-time position.
